

To recognize their own light in the light of another.
 own least gift to you is to offer our practice to the practice.
 in the this long piece of measures we all join together to invite you to one again take your seat in our midst as our inspiration and our guide -

Suryuki Reiki
 To do something to be able to stand here 24 years after your effort and pay tribute to your great spirit, and to honor you as the founder of our practice.
 what I am especially grateful for is the teaching that you mean ~~your~~ ^{teaching} the direction that you never pointed out, and the deep water that you left us in to swim on during our journeying the path of students here means to keep you interesting and to maintain the pure practice of reiki-kohe
