Dear David - I know what it means to write a book like you did. Alone like the man on the card - and yes, you did give tribute to Katagiri, on Thank You + OK (by the way, I'm listing that book in my new one Thunder + Lightning due to come out next spring. Everyone is talking about Cucumbers - my vast appreciation. I hope it's doing well. Tell Micheal to get you more money. The dharmma world owes it to you. Much love, Natalie
