

SPIRITICITY June 1941

Beloved of God, Greeting:

A sense of freedom from mental circumscription will be experienced if you glance upward to a point above the confines of your mind, above your thoughts of God. You may witness with the eye of your mind a descending action of a finer essence of Spirit so rare and pure it cannot be handled by your thoughts. It comes from a point only you can touch with your understanding.

If you touch this High Mount with its rarified atmosphere you will discover a tonic for any mental fatigue, emotional unrest, or bodily inadequacy. For this is the place of miracle working energy where you will become aware of a science transcending mental law and exalted feelings.

Here you will see why the Son of man comes in such an hour as you think not for, as you look up, you rise above your tendency to active thinking and your consciousness is made ready to receive inspiration from On High that descends into it over the path of your vision. The finer, higher, and more efficient action of Spirit affects thinking and acting, being and doing.

Here you will enter the realm of healing miracles, and prospering ministry. Here you sense the understanding that surpasses knowing and comes only of partaking.

We are always glancing toward this Point of divinity and even though you do not at first seem to touch it, it will nevertheless work for you as we touch it and declare its ministering action in your behalf.

We bless you in the Name of this Energy of God, even Jesus Christ.

Sincerely yours,
A. J. Truesdell

EMPLOY ALL TALENTS

By Mr. H. B. Jeffery

"Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit."

Acquaint yourself with that Spirit and stir up the gifts that are in you, whatever they may be. Skill is in consciousness.

As "soul is form and doth the body make" it also, using the body as a tool and instrument, creates other forms in other mediums such as clay, stone, wood, paint, various fabrics, and so forth.

As you more and more see and feel the beauty of Truth you are quite liable to see and feel beautiful forms in mind and your hands will readily execute these forms in outer mediums.

Form is a state of consciousness. Technique is in the mind. If not awake there the hands are impotent to execute forms. In all human expression "My Father worketh hitherto, and I work." your hands will intuitively, as it were, move into action and almost automatically give shape to things conceived in mind.

There is nothing inanimate in the universe. All things are alive and express life. If you delight in the Law of the Lord and do all things as unto Him and as of Him, whatsoever you do shall prosper and be a success.

Your head is spiritual, the God-given capacity for understanding Him and you own divine nature; therefore, perfect and free from all discord or inharmony, joy and peace being everywhere present within it and moving through it.

God, being the only Mind, is the only Thinker. Consciousness is the activity of the one Mind. To really know this will cause "brains" to perform and bring forth hidden treasures of knowledge and understanding.

Man's brains are not material, by spiritual, for man is a spiritual being. "Brains" is the faculty of thinking and this is spiritual. "Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God."

Employ all your talents for, "He which soweth bountifully, shall reap also bountifully."

Who are these mysterious "they"
Who seem to rule the world
And all that dwell therein?

Are they gods?
Are they influences or shades of night?
Are they men?

I know not. Still
I cringe when they speak;
I run to cover when they appear.

But some where in my Being I know
"They" are nothing at all --
Only vain and idle imaginings.

SPIRITICITY JUNE 1941

The FIRST COMING of Christ is the perception of a Principle.

The SECOND COMING of Christ is the partaking of all the potentialities of that Principle.

The first might be likened to a Franklin flying a kite with key attached in an endeavor to unlock the mysteries of electricity.

The second might be compared to an Edison, Tesla, or Marconi, making potentialities practical and beneficial - partaking of the blessings and services of electricity.

YOUR GOAL IS SUCCESS.

In all endeavor, practice must follow perception. Without application of the ideal perceived, many noble aspirations have fallen into nothingness. When a precious impulse animates the consciousness it should be followed as soon as possible by some constructive action corresponding to the intensity of vision.

Not only should the response be quick, but it should be encouraged in a continuous series of co-ordinations until the ideal gains such momentum as to begin to be self-operative.

The action involved need not be outward at first. In fact, outward manifestation is often out of the question in the first flush of ideals perceived for the individual has had no opportunity nor does he possess knowledge sufficient to concrete his purpose suddenly.

Right here indecision works havoc. Accompanying all ideals is a grand company of negative determinations - the it's impossibles and the you can'ts - lying in wait to snare the timid.

The adventurous soul accepts such as a matter of course and actually turns them to advantage by making them serve his purpose well as the necessary fertilizer essential to growth. This becomes the ground in which he plants his seed. He husbands and nourishes his first perception and allows it to spread suddenly and freely over his area of consciousness, feeding on whatever is at hand at the moment.

As the different ingredients of his ideal unite in growth they begin to draw their necessary food by reason of their existence. Bye and bye coalition of separate, seemingly unrelated, particles form into one mass and the world acknowledges another successful individual and envies his phenomenal fortune.

The essential to success is that the attention be unswerving, always aiding and abetting the aim or purpose, never defeating it by withdrawal or sympathy with impossibility. Fretting about handicaps is not co-operation but doing what is at hand in a grand manner while keeping the vision steadfast on the goal is the way of achievement.

"Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things."

The deep desire of your soul, that precious secret you fear prying eyes might see and ridicule is the "Purpose for which you came into this world;" more, it is the very purpose that brought you into this world. What have you done about it?

No doubt, like millions of sensitive people, you have buried your treasure, fearing it might be taken from you, or destroyed, if you dared to reveal it. But a talent must be exercised to increase and produce.

In this day of specialization we can liken the development of our ideal to the poultryman who keeps only freely producing chickens. The scrubs, he says, consume as much food as the prolific but make little or no return for his support.

Our destiny is within us, already fulfilled in Spirit. Accepting this fact, the wise student begins now to recognize and co-operate with his divine goal. If necessary, he reorientates his life and, selecting a marker on the horizon, fixes his attention there and moves in a straight line toward it. he repeats the process, ever setting the marker ahead, until his foreordained purpose takes him in hand and becomes self-operative in him.

The highest vision enables one to move toward the highest goal. Lift up your eyes on High and prove yourself by recognizing the resistless power for good already within yourself. Give grateful thanks to God and persistently follow your vision. "The way of life is above to the wise."

TEACH ME

I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

Show me thy ways, O Lord; teach me thy paths.

Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.

Unless the Lord had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.

In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.

So foolish was I, and ignorant.

Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to thy glory.

Teach me thy way, O Lord: I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy Name.

For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy Name for evermore.

SPIRITICITY JUNE 1941

Dear Friend;

If you should suddenly be deprived of all contact with people who, like you, are seeking to come into a new understanding of the meaning of life and all that pertains to it you would long with an infinite longing for some such contact as this lesson-bulletin offers. It is quite true that we are all one in Spirit; but, certainly fellowship with other people of like mind and intention offers opportunity for open witness to the wonders and beauties of Truth.

It has been our observation that the true student does not shun his fellows. What he does insist upon is freedom to unfold as rapidly or as slowly as he pleases. This is the right of every one everywhere.

Every little baby growing mite by mite demands its inherent right to progress as fast as it can. It sits, crawls, walks, and talks when it comes to the beginning of each of these activities - and not one minute before. Any forced action brought to bear by beloved mama or papa or admiring friends is rejected at once.

Continue to seek Truth, and, as we often suggest, look upward that your mind might be illumined by the Light that cometh from above. The ministry of the CHRIST TRUTH LEAGUE is available daily that you, and we, may grow together in grace and understanding of the Lord.

The free will offering plan enables you to place your own value on daily ministry. Whatever you give will be consecrated to further this work of holding the High Watch for all mankind in his Service. Please write for your next bulletin and join us in daily prayer and meditation..

Lovingly yours,
Nell Truesdell

DAILY MEDITATION is an active practice that produces results. This is what everybody wants. The outcome, the consequence of continued thought springs back or rebounds as something manifest, either as a quality or a condition.

If, in your meditations, you are guided by and consider the things of the Spirit, then the results achieved are always of value, always fruitful

We at the CHRIST TRUTH LEAGUE are faithful daily to the statements as set forth for this period. We should rejoice if you will join with us in prayer, and so be strengthened in spiritual fellowship with Christ Jesus.
